The Lord's Prayer.

Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive
our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

PREFACE.

THE opening exercises of a school should strike the keynote of the day. They should never be formal or perfunctory. They should be cheerful, strong, inspiring.

The purpose of this little book is to make the MORNING HOUR as pleasing and helpful as possible. It is designed for use in High Schools, Academies, and the upper grades of Grammar Schools. The method of using it can be readily varied to suit the occasion.

We hope its merits will prove to be sufficient to secure an extensive use.

THE MORNING HOUR.

SANCTUS, No. 1.

O. B. BROWN.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord God of hosts,

The first system of musical notation for 'The Morning Hour'. It consists of a treble and a bass staff. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is common time (C). The treble staff begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The lyrics 'Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord God of hosts,' are written below the notes. The bass staff also begins with a forte (f) dynamic.

Heaven and earth are full of Thy glo - ry, Glo - ry be to

The second system of musical notation. The treble staff starts with a piano (p) dynamic, followed by a crescendo (cresc.) marking, and then a forte (f) dynamic. The lyrics 'Heaven and earth are full of Thy glo - ry, Glo - ry be to' are written below. The bass staff continues the harmonic accompaniment.

Thee, O Lord Most High. A - men, A - men.

The third system of musical notation. The treble staff features a forte (f) dynamic followed by a piano (p) dynamic. The lyrics 'Thee, O Lord Most High. A - men, A - men.' are written below. The system concludes with a double bar line. The bass staff provides the harmonic support throughout.

SELECTIONS.

SELECTION ONE.

PSALM CXII.

Teacher: Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

School: His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

T. Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

S. Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: he is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

T. A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth: he will guide his affairs with discretion.

S. Surely he shall not be moved for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

T. He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the Lord.

MOZART. 7s.

From 12TH MASS.

f

1. Praise to God, im - mor - tal praise, For the love that crowns our days.
2. All that Spring, with boun-teous hand, Scat-ters o'er the smil-ing land;

Boun-teous source of ev - ery joy, Let thy praise our tongues em - ploy.
All that lib - eral Au - tumn pours From her rich o'er flow - ing stores.

A - MEN.

mp 3 These, to that dear source we owe Whence our sweetest comforts flow;
mf These, through all my happy days,
Claim my cheerful songs of praise.

cresc. 4 Lord, to thee, my soul should raise Grateful, never ending praise;
And when every blessing's flown,
Love thee for thyself alone. AMEN.

ANNA L. BARBAULD.

NOTE.— In absence of special notes for "AMEN," the last two chords may be thus used.

SELECTION TWO.

PSALM CIII.

Teacher: Bless the Lord, O my soul:
and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

School: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

T. Who forgiveth all thine iniquities;
who healeth all thy diseases;

S. Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies;

T. Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

S. The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

T. He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

S. The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

T. He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.

S. He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

T. For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

All. As far as the east is from the west,
so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

BOWDOIN SQUARE. C. M.

Arr. from VOGLER.

mf (May be sung without the Tenor.)

1. I sing th'al-might-y power of God, That made the moun - tains rise.
2. I sing the good-ness of the Lord, That filled the earth with food;

That spread the flow - ing seas a - broad, And built the loft - y skies.
He formed the crea-tures with His word, And then pro-nounced them good.

mf 3 Lord, how Thy wonders are displayed,
Where'er I turn mine eye;
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky!

4 Creatures that borrow life from Thee
Are subject to Thy care;
There's not a place where we can flee,
But God is present there.

ISAAC WATTS.

SELECTION THREE.

PSALM CIII.

Teacher: Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

School: For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.

T. As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

S. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

T. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children.

S. To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them,

T. The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.

S. Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

T. Bless ye the Lord, all ye his hosts; ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

All. Bless the Lord, all his works in all places of his dominion: bless the Lord, O my soul.

WOLFGANG. 7s.

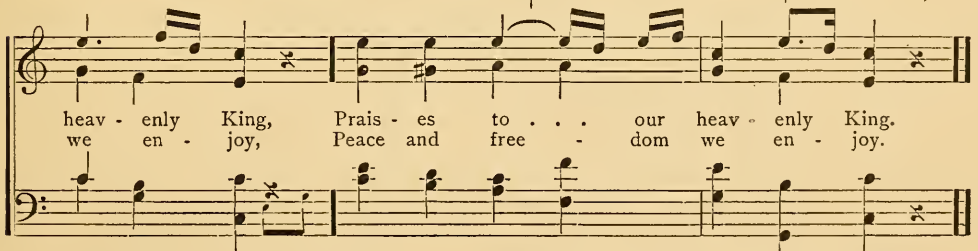

From MOZART'S 1ST MASS.

1. Swell the an - them, raise the song; Prais - es to our God be - long;
2. Bless - ings from his lib - eral hand Flow a - round this hap - py land:

Saints and an - gels join to sing Prais - es to our Kept by him, no foes an - noy; Peace and free dom

heav - enly King, Prais - es to . . . our heav - enly King, we en - joy, Peace and free - dom we en - joy.

f 3 Here, beneath a virtuous sway
May we cheerfully obey;
Never feel oppression's rod,
Ever own and worship God.

cresc. 4 Hark! the voice of nature sings
Praises to the King of kings;
Let us join the choral song,
And the grateful notes prolong.

NATHAN STRONG.

SELECTION FOUR.

PSALM LXIII.

Teacher: O God, thou art my God;
early will I seek thee: my soul
thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is;

School: To see thy power and thy glory,
so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

T. Because thy loving-kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

S. Thus will I bless thee while I live: I

BRADFORD. C. M.

will lift up my hands in thy name.

T. My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

S. When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.

T. Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

S. My soul followeth hard after thee:
thy right hand upholdeth me.

GEORGE FREDERICK HANDEL.

1. When all Thy mer-cies, O my God, My ris-ing soul sur-veys,

Trans-port-ed with the view, I'm lost In won-der, love and praise.

mf 2 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ;
Nor is the least a cheerful heart,
That tastes those gifts with joy.

mf 3 Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I'll pursue;
dim. And after death, in distant worlds, cresc. The glorious theme renew.

JOSEPH ADDISON.

SELECTION FIVE.

PSALM XIX.

Teacher: The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

School: Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

T. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

S. Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, T. Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

S. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

T. The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

- S.* The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.
- T.* The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.
- S.* More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
- T.* Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them
there is great reward.
- S.* Who can understand his errors?
cleanse thou me from secret faults.
- T.* Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.
- All.* Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

McLAIN. L. M. 61.

E. LESLIE.

p

1. Thou art, O God, the life and light Of all this won-drous world we see;

Where -
Its glow by day, its smile by night, Are but re - flec - tions caught from Thee.

cresc. f

Where'er we turn, Thy glo - ries shine, And all things fair and bright are Thine.

- 2 When day, with farewell beam, delays
Among the opening clouds of even,
And we can almost think we gaze,
Through golden vistas, into heaven,
Those hues that mark the sun's decline
So soft, so radiant, Lord, are Thine.

- 3 When youthful Spring around us breathes,
Thy spirit warms her fragrant sigh;
And every flower the Summer wreathes
Is born beneath Thy kindling eye:
Where'er we turn, Thy glories shine,
And all things fair and bright are Thine.

THOMAS MOORE.

SELECTION SIX.

PSALM XL.

Teacher : I waited patiently for the Lord ;
and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

School : He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

T. And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God :
many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the Lord.

S. Blessed is that man that maketh the Lord his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

T. Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-

ward : they cannot be reckoned up
in order unto thee :

S. If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

T. Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire ; mine ears hast thou opened :
burnt offering and sin offering hast
thou not required.

S. Then said I, Lo, I come : in the volume of the book it is written of me,

T. I delight to do thy will, O my God :
yea, the law is within my heart.

S. Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me :
O Lord, make haste to help me.

All. Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee : let such as love thy salvation say continually,
The Lord be magnified.

ST. MARK. C. M.

GAUNTLETT.

mf 1. To Him from whom our bless - ings flow, Who all our wants sup - plies, mf 2. 'T was He who led the pil - grim band A - cross the storm - y sea ;

This day the cho - ral song and vow From grate - ful hearts shall rise.
'T was He who stayed the ty - rant's hand And set our coun - try free.

p 3 When shivering on a strand unknown
In sickness and distress,
Our fathers looked to God alone
To save, protect, and bless.

f 4 Be Thou our nation's strength and shield
In manhood as in youth
Thine arm for our protection wield,
And guide us by thy truth.

SELECTION SEVEN.

PROVERBS XV.

Teacher : The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

School : A wholesome tongue is a tree of life : but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

T. A fool despiseth his father's instruction : but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

S. In the house of the righteous is much treasure : but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

T. The lips of the wise disperse knowledge : but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

S. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord : but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

T. The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the Lord : but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

S. Better is little with the fear of the Lord, than great treasure and trouble therewith.

T. Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

S. A wrathful man stirreth up strife : but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

T. The way of the slothful man is as a hedge of thorns : but the way of the righteous is made plain.

S. A wise son maketh a glad father : but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

EISENACH. L. M.

JOHANN HERMANN SCHEIN.

1. A - wake my soul and with the sun, Thy dai - ly stage of du - ty run ;
 mf 2. Il - lu - mined by the light di - vine, Let thy own light to oth - ers shine ;

Shake off dull sloth, and joy - ful rise, To pay thy morn - ing sac - ri - fice.
 Re - flect all heaven's pro - pi - tious rays, In ar - dent love and cheer - ful praise.

mf 3 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew—Scatter my sins like morning dew ; [will,
 Guard my first springs of thought and
 And with Thyself my spirit fill.

mf 4 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
 All I design, or do, or say,
 That all my powers, with all their might,
 In Thy sole glory may unite.

THOMAS KEN.

SELECTION EIGHT.

PSALM XXXIII.

Teacher: Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.

School: Praise the Lord with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.

T. Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud noise.

S. For the word of the Lord is right; and all his works are done in truth.

T. He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

S. By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

T. Let all the earth fear the Lord: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

S. For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

T. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

S. The Lord looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men.

T. Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;

S. To deliver their soul from death, and and to keep them alive in famine.

T. Our soul waiteth for the Lord: he is our help and our shield.

S. For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

All. Let thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

LINWOOD. L. M.
cresc.

Tenor may be sung by 2nd Alto 8va lower.

GIOACCHIMO ROSSINI.

mp 1. My God, my King, thy va - rious praise Shall fill the rem - nant of my days:
mp 2. The wings of ev - ery hour shall bear Some thankful trib - ute to thine ear;

Thy grace em - ploy my hum - ble tongue Till death and glo - ry raise the song.
 And ev - ery set - ting sun shall see New works of du - ty done for thee.

f 3 Thy works with sovereign glory shine,
 And speak thy majesty divine:
 Let Zion in her courts proclaim
 The sound and honor of thy name.

f 4 But who can speak thy wondrous deeds?
 Thy greatness all our thoughts exceeds:
 Vast and unsearchable thy ways;
 Vast and immortal be thy praise.

ISAAC WATTS.

SELECTION NINE.

PSALM CXLVII.

Teacher: Praise ye the Lord: for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant; and praise is comely.

School: He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

T. He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

S. Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite.

T. The Lord lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to the ground.

S. Sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving: sing praise upon the harp unto our God:

T. Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

S. He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.

T. He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

All. The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

WILLIAMS. 8s & 7s. (THANKSGIVING.)

REV. JOHN B. DYKES.

mf

mf 1. Praise the Lord, when blush-ing morn-ing Wakes the blossoms fresh with dew, Praise Him when re-vived cre-a-tion Beams with beauties-fair and new.

mf 2 Praise the Lord, and may his blessing
Guide us in the way of truth,
Keep our feet from paths of error,
Make us holy in our youth.

mf 3 Praise the Lord when early breezes
Come so fragrant from the flowers,
Praise thou willow by the brook-side,
Praise, ye birds among the bowers.

SELECTION TEN.

PSALM CXLV.

Teacher: Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

School: The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

T. The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season.

S. Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

T. The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

S. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

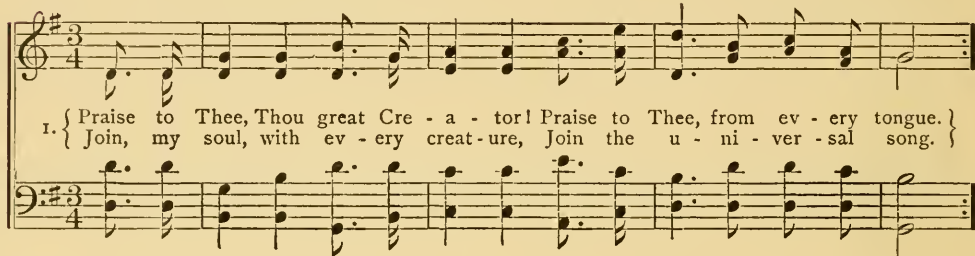

T. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

S. The Lord preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy.

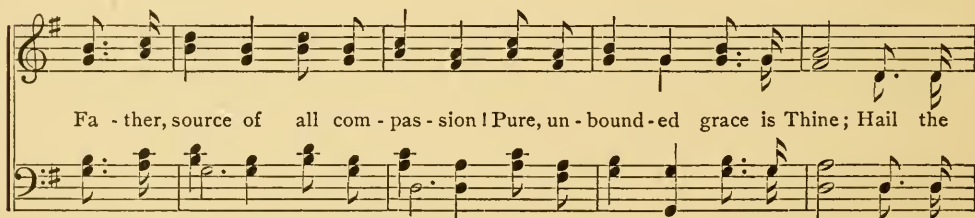

T. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

LOTT. 8s & 7s.

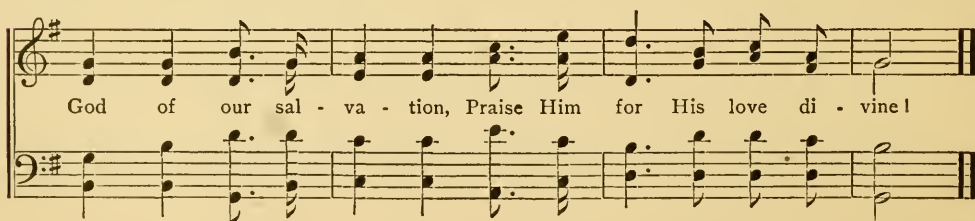

From a Catholic Tune Book.

 For the hope of future joy,
 Sound His praise through earth and heaven,
 Sound Jehovah's praise on high.

3 Joyfully on earth adore Him,
 Till in heaven our song we raise:
 There enraptured, fall before Him,
 Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

SELECTION ELEVEN.

REVELATION XXII.

Teacher: And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

School: In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

T. And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

S. And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

T. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

SELECTION THIRTEEN.

PROVERBS III.

Teacher : Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding :

School : For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

T. She is more precious than rubies : and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

S. Length of days is in her right hand ; and in her left hand riches and honour.

T. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

S. She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her : and happy is every one that retaineth her.

T. The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth ; by understanding hath he established the heavens.

S. By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew.

T. My son, let not them depart from thine eyes : keep sound wisdom and discretion.

S. So shall they be life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck.

T. Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

S. When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid : yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

T. Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.

S. For the Lord shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

THATCHER. S. M.

HANDEL.

mf 1. The Lord my shep - herd is ; I shall be well sup - plied :
2. He leads me to the place Where heav - enly past - ure grows,

Since He is mine, and I am His, What can I want be - side ?
Where liv - ing wa - ters gent - ly pass, And full sal - va - tion flows.

3 If e'er I go astray,
He doth my soul reclaim,
And guides me, in His own right way,
For His most holy name.

4 While He affords His aid,
I cannot yield to fear ; [shade,
Though I should walk through death's dark
My Shepherd's with me there.

5 In sight of all my foes,
Thou dost my table spread ;
My cup with blessings overflows,
And joy exalts my head.

PSALM XXXII.

Teacher: Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

School: Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

T. I acknowledge my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.

S. For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayst be found.

T. Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the Lord, mercy shall compass him about.

S. Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM XXIV.

Teacher: The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof: the world, and they that dwell therein.

School: For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

T. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place?

S. He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

T. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

S. This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob.

T. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

S. Who is this King of glory?

T. The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

S. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

tle thing.

T. And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.

S. All nations before him are as nothing ;
and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.

T. To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power ; not one

ROMANS XII.

Teacher: Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

School: Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

T. Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer.

S. Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.

T. Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

S. Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

T. Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

S. Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

T. If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

S. Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

T. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

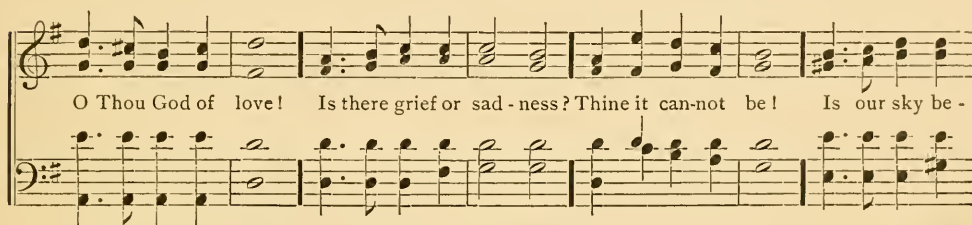

S. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

Love for God and man,
Day by day Thou find us
Doing what we can,
Thou who giv'st the seed-time,
Wilt give large increase,
Crown the head with blessings,
Fill the heart with peace.

3 On our way rejoicing,
Gladly let us go:
Conquered hath our Leader,
Vanquished is our foe!
Loving cheer around us,
Cheerful love within,
Faith's good battle fighting,
Victory shall win!

PSALM VIII.

Teacher: O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

School: Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength.

T. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

S. What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

T. For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

S. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

T. All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

S. The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

T. O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

2 Heavenly love creation blesses,
 Nature owns its thrilling kiss;
 All that lives and feels confesses
 Gratefully this hour of bliss.
 New-born life its hymn is raising
 On the mead and in the grove;
 Shall not we, too, join in praising Nature's God, the God of Love?

3 Yes! amid Thy glad creation
 Shall our song ascend to Thee;
 And with holy exultation,
 In Thy works our joy shall be!
 This Thy world of bliss and beauty
 Evermore we will enjoy;
 And in works of childlike duty,
 All our days for Thee employ.

Teacher: And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots:

School: And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord;

T. And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:

S. But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

T. And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

S. The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.

T. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

I JOHN IV.

Teacher: He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God is love.

School: In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

T. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

S. Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

T. No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

S. Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

T. And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent his Son to be the Saviour of the world.

S. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

T. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

His wisdom deemeth good.

3 The Bible, too, He sends us,
That tells how Jesus came,
Whose word can save and cleanse us,
From guilt and sin and shame.
O may God's mercies move us,
To serve Him with our powers,
For O how He must love us,

PSALM CXV.

Teacher : Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

School : But our God is in the heavens : he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.

T. Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

S. They have mouths, but they speak not : eyes have they, but they see not :

T. They have ears, but they hear not : noses have they, but they smell not :

S. They have hands, but they handle not : feet have they, but they walk not : neither speak they through their throat.

T. They that make them are like unto them : so is every one that trusteth in them.

S. Ye that fear the Lord, trust in the Lord : he is their help and their shield.

T. The Lord hath been mindful of us : he will bless us.

S. He will bless them that fear the Lord, both small and great.

T. Ye are blessed of the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

S. The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord's : but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

Teacher: Let not your heart be troubled.
ye believe in God, believe also in me.

School: In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

T. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

S. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

T. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and and how can we know the way?

S. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

T. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

Teacher: They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

School: These see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep.

T. For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

S. They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.

T. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end.

S. Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

T. He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

S. Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

T. Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

S. Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders!

T. He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground;

S. A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

T. He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings.

S. And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they prepare a city for habitation;

T. And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.

PSALM XXXVII.

Teacher: A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

School: For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the Lord upholdeth the righteous.

T. The Lord knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be forever.

S. They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

T. But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the Lord shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.

S. The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.

T. For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.

S. The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord: and he delighteth in his way. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.

T. I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

S. Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore.

T. For the Lord loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

S. The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

Teacher: Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

School: Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

T. He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

S. He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.

T. Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.

S. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

T. Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall not fall at once.

S. He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

School: How think ye? if a man have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

T. And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

S. Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?

T. Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven.

PSALM I.

Teacher: Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

School: But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

T. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

S. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

T. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

S. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM CXIX.

Teacher: Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end.

School: Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

T. Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight.

S. Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness.

T. Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

S. Stablish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear.

T. Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good.

S. Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousness.

HOMELAND 7s. & 6s.

ARTHUR SULLIVAN.

2 My Lord is in the Homeland, with angels bright and fair,
No sinful thing nor evil can ever enter there.
The music of the ransomed is ringing in my ears;
And when I think of the Homeland, my eyes are wet with tears.

3 For loved ones in the Homeland are waiting me to come,
Where neither death nor sorrow invade their holy home:
O dear, dear Native Country! O rest and peace above!
Christ bring us all to the Homeland of His eternal love.

PSALM LXXXVI.

Teacher: Be merciful unto me, O Lord:
for I cry unto thee daily.

School: Rejoice the soul of thy servant:
for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

T. For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

S. Give ear, O Lord, unto my prayer; and attend to the voice of my sup-plications.

T. In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

S. Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works.

T. All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O
Lord; and shall glorify thy name.

S. For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

T. Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

S. I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

T. Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy

Teacher: No man can serve two masters : for either he will hate the one, and love the other ; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

School: Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink ; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment ?

T. Behold the fowls of the air : for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns ; yet your heav-only Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they ?

S. Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature ?

T. And why take ye thought for raiment ? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow ; they toil not, neither do they spin :

S. And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

T. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith ?

2 I saw the roses growing
In beauty day by day ;
No queen in all her glory
So lovely in array.
And on the leaves were written
Sweet words of love and trust for me :
" If God so clothed the roses,
Will He not care for thee ? "

3 I thank Thee, O my Father,
That 'mid life's toil and dust,
The birds and flowers can bring us
Such heav'nly hope and trust :
Quickened by faith they whisper
The Master's word in peace to me :
" If God for these so careth,
Will He not care for thee ? "

I SAMUEL, III.

Teacher : And the child Samuel minis-

And the word of the Lord was precious in those days ;

there was no open vision.

School : And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not see ;

T. And ere the lamp of God went out in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was laid down to sleep; That the Lord called Samuel: and he answered, Here am I.

S. And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

T. And the Lord called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again.

S. Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, neither was the word of the Lord yet revealed unto him.

T. And the Lord called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And Eli perceived that the Lord had called the child.

S. Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, Lord; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

T. And the Lord came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak; for thy servant heareth.

S. For the Lord is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

T. For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the Lord made the heavens.

S. Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

T. Give unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the Lord glory and strength.

S. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

T. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

S. Say among the heathen that the Lord reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people righteously.

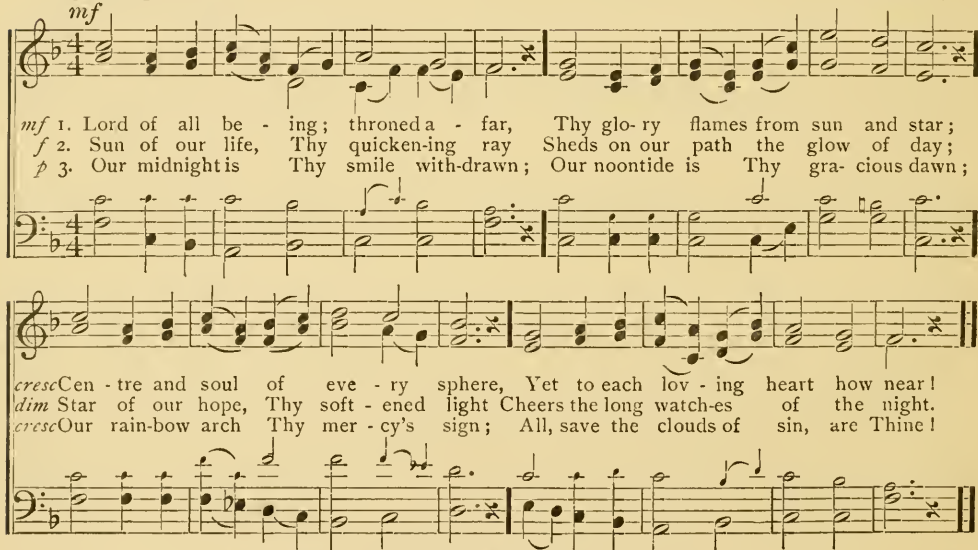

T. Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

S. Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the Lord: for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

 Seed of life to scatter,
 But the seed to spring to life,
 Must its wrappings shatter.
 Ye, who bearing precious seed,
 Go forth toiling, weeping,
 Know that He who with you works,
 Hath all in His keeping.

PSALM LI.

Teacher: Hide thy face from my sins,
and blot out all mine iniquities.

School: Create in me a clean heart, O God;
and renew a right spirit within me.

T. Cast me not away from thy presence;
and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

S. Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation;
and uphold me with thy free Spirit.

T. Then will I teach transgressors thy ways;
and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

S. Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation:
and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

T. O Lord, open thou my lips;
and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

S. For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

T. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

REVELATION XXI.

Teacher: And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

School: And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

T. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

S. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

PSALM CXIX.

Teacher: Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord.

School: Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

T. They also do no iniquity: they walk in his ways.

S. Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently.

T. O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!

S. Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments.

T. I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned thy righteous judgments.

S. I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly.

RUTH II.

Teacher: So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabite, her daughter in law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

School: And Naomi had a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was Boaz.

T. And Ruth the Moabite said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and glean ears of corn after him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter.

S. And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.

T. And, behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said unto the reapers, The Lord be with you. And they answered him, The Lord bless thee.

S. Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this?

T. And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Moabite damsel that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab:

S. And Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and reproach her not:

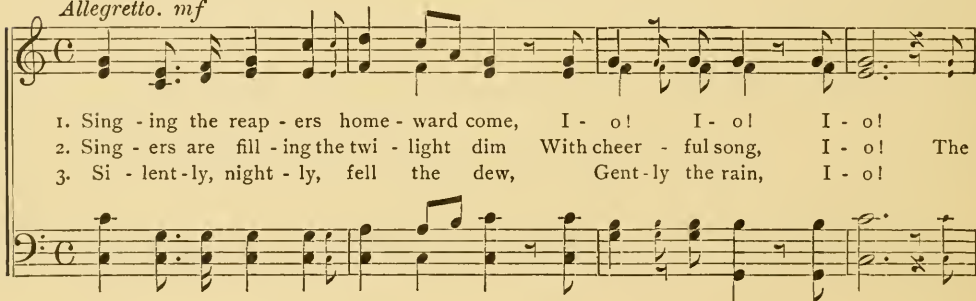

T. And let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not.

S. So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley.

Teacher: Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

School: And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

T. When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

S. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

T. And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

WHAT CHILD IS THIS?

CHRISTMAS CAROL.

OLD ENGLISH.

1. What Child is this who, laid to rest, On Ma-ry's lap is sleep-ing? Whom angels greet with an - thems sweet, While shepherds watch are keep-ing! This, this is Christ the King, Whom shepherds guard, and angels sing. Haste, haste to bring Him laud, The Babe, the Son of Ma - ry!

2 So bring Him incense, gold and myrrh,
Come, peasant, king to own Him;
The King of kings salvation brings
Let loving hearts enthrone Him.
Raise, raise the song on high,
The Virgin sings her lullaby.
Joy, joy! for Christ is born,
The Babe, the Son of Mary!

PSALM CXIX.

Teacher : Thy hands have made me and fashioned me : give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

School : They that fear thee will be glad when they see me ; because I have hoped in thy word.

T. I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me.

S. Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to thy word unto thy servant.

T. Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live ; for thy law is my delight.

S. Let the proud be ashamed ; for they dealt perversely with me without a cause : but I will meditate in thy precepts.

T. Let those that fear thee turn unto me, and those that have known thy testimonies.

S. Let my heart be sound in thy statutes ; that I be not ashamed.

Teacher : Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them ;

School : While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain :

T. In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened,

S. And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low ;

T. Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail : because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets :

S. Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

T. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was : and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

PSALM CXIX.

Teacher: O how I love thy law! it is my meditation all the day.

School: Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.

T: I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation.

S: I understand more than the ancients,
because I keep thy precepts.

T: I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.

S: I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast taught me.

T: How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth.

S: Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

1. In heav'n-ly love a - bid - ing, No change my heart shall fear. And safe is such con-fid - ing, For noth - ing chang - es here. The storm may roar with - out me, My heart may low be laid, But God is round a - bout me, And can I be dis - mayed?

2 Wherever he may guide me,
No want shall turn me back;
My Shepherd is beside me,
And nothing can I lack;
His wisdom ever waketh,
His sight is never dim;
He knows the way he taketh,
And I will walk with Him.

3 Green pastures are before me,
Which yet I have not seen;
Bright skies will soon be o'er me,
Where darkest clouds have been.
My hope I cannot measure;
My path to life is free;
My Saviour has my treasure,
And He will walk with me.

Teacher: I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

School: Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

T. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

S. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

T. As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you; continue ye in my love.

S. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love: even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

T. These things have I spoken unto you, that your joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

S. This is my commandment, That ye love one another as I have loved you.

DIRECTIONS FOR CHANTING.

A¹ O come let us sing un- B¹ to • the | Lord : A² let us heartily rejoice in the B² strength • of | our •

[illegible]

An Anglican Chant consists of two parts, the first of three measures, and the second of four measures in length. The two parts are also called Halves ; one half is sung to that part of a verse of the Prayer-book version of the Psalms on each side of the colon, whether the number of words be many or few, whether the sentence is complete or not. Each half consists of a Reciting-note, or Mediation, A¹ and A², and a Cadence, or Inflection, B¹ and B². In the first half, the cadence occupies two measures ; and in the second, three measures. The reciting-note may be sustained at will, to accommodate the number of syllables in each part of the verse, minus those sung to the cadence. The cadences must be sung in strict time, the tempo varying from $\text{♩} = 100$ to $\text{♩} = 144$, according to the character and spirit of the psalm.

The fitting of the words to the music is called Pointing. The principal object to be aimed at in pointing is the apportioning out of the emphasis of the words to be sung, after the manner that an eloquent speaker would recite them ; but as sentences are capable of as many accents more or less sensible as there are words, the diversity of opinion on this subject is necessarily very great. The pointing here adopted is that provided for and in use in the Trinity Parish of New York.

The symbols used in pointing are the Rallying-word, e, i. e., the word or syllable printed in italics; the Bars, c, corresponding to the bars in the music; the Colon, d¹, which divides the two halves of the verse; the Period, d², corresponding to a double bar at the end of the music; the Period, f, placed above the words, which divides the measure; and the double-dash, g, which indicates that one syllable is sung to all the notes of a measure.

The rallying-word serves two purposes, first: that all the singers who have varied in the speed of the delivery of the words set to the reciting-note may here rally before entering upon the cadence; second: that here the strict time of the music of the chant begins, for which reason the rallying-word is always emphasized.

From the rallying-word to the first note of the cadence the time must occupy just two beats, which are of exactly the same speed as the two beats in each measure of the cadence. Sometimes there is only one word of one syllable set to the reciting-note. This must be prolonged to the length of two beats. At other times there are one or two syllables between the rallying-word and the cadence. These must be sung rapidly, and the time they consume be taken out of the two beats usually allotted to the rallying-word.

When a word of two syllables is set to one of the measures of a cadence, it is divided by a hyphen instead of the period, f. The Comma, and occasionally the Semi-Colon indicates the place for taking breath. The final ED in words like sav-ed, rais-ed, etc., should in all cases be pronounced as a separate syllable.

Experience has demonstrated that in teaching chanting the best results are obtained first : by letting the singers sing the music of the chant to some syllable like la, and in strict time ;

second : by letting the singers sing the words from the rallying-word only to the end of the respective half of the verse, again in strict time ;

third : by letting the singers sing all the words, holding time in suspension up to the rallying-word, at which strict time is taken up and kept to the end of the cadence.

Oh, come let us sing un-to . the Lord : let us heartily rejoice in the strength . of our . sal - vation.

God of the morning, at Thy voice	74	Sing of Jesus, sing forever	61
God of the morning ray	66	Summer days once more are coming	44
God of the year ! with songs of praise	100	Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear	71
Gracious God, our Heavenly Father	29	Suppliant, lo ! Thy children bend	92
Great God ! we sing that mighty Hand	94	Sweet is the work, my God, my King	31
Hail to the Lord's Anointed	83	Swell the anthem, raise the song	13
Hark, hark, my soul	65	The breaking waves dashed high	104
Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty	59	The Homeland ! O the Homeland !	75
Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts	5	The Lord is my shepherd	57
Holy ! Holy ! Holy ! Lord God of Sabaoth	6	The Lord my pasture shall prepare	52
Holy Love, from heaven descended	55	The Lord my shepherd is	23
How dearly God must love us	46	The morning light flingeth	81
How firm a foundation	84	There is a land immortal	93
How gentle God's commands	85	The star of day is in the skies	110
Hushed was the evening-hymn	79	The world itself keeps Easter Day	96
I heard the robin singing	77	They stand, those halls of Zion	22
Illustrious Sires ! Undaunted Seers !	101	They who seek the throne of grace	70
In heavenly love abiding	112	Thou art, O God, the life and light	15, 51
I sing th'almighty Power of God	12	Though faint, yet pursuing	56
It is a good thing to give thanks	9	Thou, who art enthroned above	60
Jerusalem, the golden	21	Thou, who roll'st the year around	95
Lead, kindly Light	89	"Till He come," Oh, let the words	78
Let all men praise the Lord	35	To Him, from whom our blessings flow	16
Like silver lamps in a distant shrine	108	To Thy pastures fair and large	68
Long as I live, I'll bless Thy name	45, 49	Triumphant Lord, Thy goodness reigns	38, 39
Lord of all being	82	What Child is This who, laid to rest	109
Lord of mercy and of might	87	When all Thy mercies, O my God	14, 47
Lord, Thy glory fills the heaven	102	When morning gilds the skies	62
Lord, we come before Thee now	76	While Thee I seek, protecting Power	73
		With all my powers of heart and tongue	30
